Family Fridays

"Yesterday (Friday, 19 June 2009) was the first "Family Day" evening at Navnat Centre, and what a turn out to be. Just one word EXCELLENT. Young and old and children and parents all were there to join the first ever Family Day organised by NVA committee, lead by Paresh Mehta and his time who worked hard to make it a success, Shakuntala Sheth and Usha Shah prepared mouth watering Pau Bhaji. Navnat Bridge members also joined the fun at the beginning. Very young ones were entertained upstairs in the Kids Zone.

In short it was an excellent evening, enjoyed by all who came. So next time make a point to attend".

"Family Fun..this, it certainly was.

Great evening, lovely atmosphere, kids had a 'ball' and can't wait to come back. A really big thank you and well done to all those that made it happen".

"Congratulations !! It is so good to know that you had such a successful day. I was not there, but will make sure I attend next one.

Well done and keep up the good work".

"Thank you for sharing these photographs. It helps me thinking I am there and am with you guys".

"I enjoyed it too ! the amazing thing is that nothing special was needed, just some basic activities to chill out. Well done to the committee".

"Glad to see photos - regret I was not able to join as work finished late".
